

Cancer Prevention and Healthy Living During COVID-19

Please join Northwestern Medicine for a night of education and virtual interaction focused on understanding cancer prevention, screening and healthy living during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Thursday, October 8

6:30–7:30 pm Guest speakers

7:30–8:00 pm Q&A with speakers

Guest speakers

Kelly Foster, MD; Medical Oncology, Northwestern Medicine

Paul Smiley, PsyD; Clinical Psychologist, Parkside Psychological Services

Mary DiPietro, RD, LDN; Clinical Dietitian, Northwestern Medicine

Please RSVP by October 7 by calling:

Noelle Mack, Northwestern Medicine Lake Forest Hospital Oncology

Social Worker and Outreach Coordinator

847.535.7441

TTY: 312.926.6363

There is no cost to attend, and all are welcome. Information for connecting to this virtual event will be provided after you register.

Funding for this educational program is supplied by the Welles Memorial Endowment.

Event information

Thursday, October 8

6:30–8:00 pm

RSVP by October 7

Call Noelle Mack, LCSW, OSW-C

847.535.7441

TTY: 312.926.6363

There is no cost to attend, and all are welcome. Information for connecting to this virtual event will be provided after you register.
