NOVEMBER 6 2018

Dr. Nimmagadda provided an excellent consult, he was very knowledgeable and willing to take time to explain things clearly and address all my concerns. He even called me directly days after the visit to give his insight on test results that finally came through from an outside practice, which I've never had a doctor do before.

OCTOBER 10 2019

I have been having several issues with my GI health and my health has been deteriorating for the past few years, but Dr. Nimmagadda Kiran was exceptional in the way he handled my case. He laid out a diagnosis plan by providing me all the key Doctors I need to talk to ensure nothing is being overlooked and also followed up via a phone call later the same day and shared feedback based on the research he has done since I left. This has been one of the best experiences here at Northwestern.

NOVEMBER 2 2019

Dr. Nimmagadda spent a lot of time on explaining and concern to make sure everything was understood.
