Dr. Corcoran is concerned for the well being of each patient. Takes into consideration the safety, well being and health of each patient. Her knowledge of the prescription medications that my daughter was on was vital in balancing my daughter's manic state to one of calm and peace. The difference is like night to day. My daughter now smiles instead of cries. Is happy and well adjusted. This is an answer to prayers. God Bless Dr. Corcoran for her expertise during a difficult time in my daughter's life.
