This doctor here!!!! First of all she treats you like an actual human and not just a patient. She's very tender in her approach. This lady has style, grace, and spunk. Hands down my favorite gynecology doctor and one of the most memorable doctors in my life. My mom passed away last year and she and I shared a love for elephants. I shared this with Dr. Chaudhari. The day after my big surgery, this beautiful person walked in my room to not only check on me and fill me in about the surgery but she also delivered a beautiful interactive elephant!!! It took everything to hold in my tears..I would recommend her a million times over. She's very concerned about the wellbeing of every as single person that comes into her office..I'm glad I was one of them..she has been on my care team for the last 9 months. I started out as a sickly 92 lb 31 year old now I'm a healthy vibrant 116lb 31 1/2 year old!
