MAY 9 2022

I've really enjoyed interacting with Dr. Chaudhari thus far, though today left me a little disappointed. I arrived early for my appointment and was taken back a few minutes early, but then was left alone in the room for a bit over an hour with no updates. Dr. Chaudhari finally arrived and the appointment commenced. During the procedure, I had a vasovagal response, which she said they'd get me some water for. The appointment finished and she and her nurse left rather quickly. No water was brought. That's okay, and I understand that hospitals and doctors can be busy. I honestly wouldn't have thought anything of it if it'd been another or a new doctor, but because she's always been so spectacular with her bedside manner, it left me a little disappointed. I hope everything was okay with her!

MAY 6 2022

She listened to me and addressed all of my concerns and questions. She put me at ease and I was confident that she would take good care of me.
