Dr. Stein is an excellent doctor and service is great.

SEPTEMBER 11 2020

He is a specialist in his field. He takes time to listen and answer your questions. He is kind and compassionate.

SEPTEMBER 11 2020

Professional and knowledgeable physician and staff.

SEPTEMBER 8 2020

Dr Stein. was very patient understanding and very compassionate in his role. Made me feel very comfortable

SEPTEMBER 8 2020

Everyone was Courteous, respectful, and kind,

SEPTEMBER 8 2020

As I explained above, he chose to mistreat me before he asked me one question or gave me a chance to explain my own side of the story. Maybe Dr. Stein has his own issues right now. He seems very uptight and angry. COVID 19 may be triggering some unwarranted outbursts but I am an 83 year old with many health issues so don't appreciate dealing with an unnecessary mistreatment.

SEPTEMBER 8 2020

My hematologist was upset because I sought another opinion so he managed to anger Dr. Stein in the process. Dr.Stein raised his voice and chastised me by saying very loudly "you don't need a bone marrow test if nothing is changing. He also praised my doctor and berated me for not appreciating what a fine doctor he is. I was completely shocked! Later, after finally listening to some of my issues, he admitted that I might need a cone marrow test if I was changing medications. He eventually became annoyed with me and barked "you have asked that three times already!" My family and I went to a great deal of effort to drive from Peoria, Illinois to Chicago. I regret making the trip at all! I cried about it when I explained to my daughter how I felt being treated so poorly.

SEPTEMBER 3 2020

Dr Stein is careful, thorough and explained his plan of care so as to make sure I was part of the discussion and knew what to expect going forward.

SEPTEMBER 3 2020

It was a wonderful experience with caring professionals.
