APRIL 28 2021

Dr. Steinke is so kind, understanding & super smart. He really takes the time to talk to you & show you your X-rays or MRIs so you can visually see what he's talking about. His bedside manner is so professional & kind. His nurse Sharon is so incredibly kind & helpful & super fast to respond to any questions or refill requests sent through mychart. I've just had a spinal fusion in November & the pain before surgery was horrendous & even made me nauseous. I'm a stay-at-home mom to two very active boys (ages 4 & 5). Recovery was rough but I knew ahead of time what to expect because of Dr. Steinke. I'm finally pain-free & feel like I have my life back. I'm looking forward to a summer that will allow me to join my husband & kids on walks, etc.

Starting before surgery & reminders along the way of recovery of what I should be going through & what to expect next. Hes just a great guy & doctor. Excellent surgeon & extremely smart. He talks in terms that I understand & never makes me feel like he is in a rush. His nurse Sharon is also beyond amazing. Excellent bedside manner, kind & smart & understanding. Shes super responsive to any calls or mychart messages. Shes always responded to me the same day. They make an excellent team. I cant say enough good things about them. FEBRUARY 1 2021

Dr. Steinke worked closely with me for months to find non-surgical ways to improve my neck pain. When none of them worked, he fully explained the procedure, after surgery impacts and healing time frames. Great "bed side manner" and patient care at all times. Best proof, surgery went well and I'm healing well.

JANUARY 28 2021

Dr Steinke is absolutely awesome. With Dr Steinke I always feel he is genuinely concerned with making me well again.

JANUARY 27 2021

My Dr. Steinke asks the right questions to determine my condition and future state options. I have total respect for his professionalism and Å bedside manner?.

JANUARY 26 2021

The doctor was unprofessional, haven't addressed all issues, didn't bother to read the MRI report which include several issues he didn't even bother to discuss. He started from asking my nationality, and when the visit was finished I heard he said behind the door to his assistant: "I knew he was russian.. weird guy". Very insulting and unprofessional.

JANUARY 25 2021

JANUARY 19 2021

JANUARY 19 2021

He was very nice and took the time to explain my MRI results.

JANUARY 19 2021

Dr. Steinke is knowledgeable, personable, understanding and not one to jump to surgery without trying other solutions.

JANUARY 12 2021

He has an awesome bed side manner.

JANUARY 12 2021

Dr. Steinke was incredibly dismissive of my symptoms. He actually laughed at some of my complaints during my physical exam, and left me in tears at the end of the visit. I am incredibly disappointed that a physician of his stature cannot look at and listen to the patient (as a person and as a whole) rather than discriminating based upon a patients comorbidities and/or insurance. Absolutely the most terrible experience Ive had. I dont see where its ever appropriate for a physician to laugh at and dismiss any patient, regardless.

JANUARY 4 2021

Dr. Steinke is a wonderful, caring MD. He takes time to listen and is clear about options and treatments.

JANUARY 2 2021

Outstanding surgeon with a great bedside manner and no B.S.

JANUARY 2 2021

He is very professional, equally friendly. He showed me my x-ray and explained what I was seeing. He did not "talk down" to me, he came across as being very intelligent without making me feel ignorant and as being self-confident without being arrogant. He explained next steps and let me know what I might need to expect.

DECEMBER 26 2020

Because of my success story and how much I hear how other people/patients weren't so lucky. I try to tell any one with a problem who my dr. Is were I got surgery and treatment afterwards.

DECEMBER 23 2020

DECEMBER 19 2020

He is always very professional and he explain everything were I understand

DECEMBER 19 2020
