OCTOBER 2 2020

My first time seeing an allergist. She's kind and took time to listen and ask questions. I really appreciate the empathy given to a woman of color with hyperpigmentation, when I asked to not be given the patch test, as it would scar. She did NOT make me feel silly or vain for requesting that, and immediately said we should do blood work instead.

OCTOBER 2 2020

I was able to see an allergist within a reasonable amount of time of getting the referral. The office actually called to remind me to make an appointment. Staff was very nice, and I felt comfortable with the level of precautions being taken due to COVID.

OCTOBER 2 2020

Where can I start with this lady? I have been battling with a deluge of professionalism and inefficiency in the entire network lately, but Dr. Masood came to me like the light at the end of a dark tunnel. Such a breath of fresh air, really! She stood on her feet for close to an HOUR entering my medical info on her computer, dug really deep in my medical history, deeper than any other specialist had, and managed to access different network just so she could get to the bottom of my condition. I had been suffering from chronic NON-STOP diarrhea, dramatic hair loss and bleeding gums) since January of 2020 and I saw a G.I. specialist, an Endocrinologist, an OBGYN, a Dermatologist and finally Dr. Masood. Her holistic approach is all-encompassing and very reassuring for a patient who doesn't want to have the one symptom or the one organ examined only. I believe this is how medicine should be practiced. Dr. Masood has compassion and understanding, her patients are not just 'cases' to her. She has gone above and beyond when she knew my insurance was expiring, and went as far as scheduling my diagnostics herself. Dr. Masood, if you are reading this, I want you to know that I appreciate how you are helping me and that you have restored my faith in Western medicine. I would also like to shout out to nurse Lupe for taking her time to help me out as well. Wonderful and great attitude. THANK YOU.
