Dr. Bloomgarden is by far the best endocrinologist I've seen. She is exceptionally caring, thorough and genuine. I never feel rushed and receive incredibly personal care. She is an outstanding physician and a wonderful person.

SEPTEMBER 17 2019

Dr. Bloomgarden was excellent. She helped clarify my diagnosis and explained things well. She even does her own ultrasound of the thyroid in the office, which means I didn't have to go to the radiologist as well. I would recommend her to anyone.

SEPTEMBER 6 2019

I am extremely confident and impressed with *Dr. Eve Bloomgarden. She is a definite asset to Northwestern.

AUGUST 11 2019

Dr. Bloomgarden is nothing short of AMAZING!! She not only listened to me, she responded in a way that made me feel heard, validated and as though she saw me as a human being, not just as a set of lab numbers on a chart. It is such a relief to finally have an endocrinologist who is fully vested in helping me improve my health and well-being-and it was the first time EVER that I left an endocrinology appointment feeling motivated and hopeful instead frustrated and hopeless. I was literally moved to tears by the experience and am so very grateful to have found Dr. Bloomgarden.

Dr. Bloomgarden is a wonderful doctor and is very easy to talk to. I didn't mind the extra wait time in the exam room for my appointment because at least when it was my turn I didn't feel like she was rushing through my appointment. She spent enough quality time listening to what I had to say and also to make sure I understood everything I needed to know about my medical care.

MARCH 29 2019

Dr. Bloomgarden is excellent. She is knowledgeable, listened, informed - had looked at the records I brought and the ones in the system before we met, explained tests, diagnoses, my condition and options clearly, reassuring and obviously very bright! Just an excellent experience for me. In addition some tests were likely more complicated and took a little longer to complete and post in My Chart. I was concerned and sent messages via My Chart and through the central scheduling line to the nurse and I got quick and complete responses.

MAY 2 2018

After a very poor experience with the first doctor I saw, the provider I saw this time, Eve Bloomgarden, was fantastic. She listened to my frustrations with the first doctor I saw and was apologetic on behalf of the practice. She was kind, warm, relatable and very knowledgeable. She took time to answer all of my questions and explain things in a way that I could understand. She did not minimize any of my issues and was very patient with me. I had a very positive experience with her and would definitely recommend her.

APRIL 19 2018

Dr Bloomgarden is my favorite doctor I see at Northwestern and I see a lot of them!! She always makes me feel like I am the only patient she has for the day and my health is number one. She listens to me and helps me find out how we can make my body healthy and she is prepared on my case before she enters the room and never rushes me through my questions!! I do not mind waiting a bit longer in exam room for her to finish up with other patients b/c I know she is doing the same for them!!
