MARCH 27 2022

I would and have, already recommended NM, Dr. Frank Martini my GI specialist to two other family members. He listens closely and considers all other possible health issues and does all proper assessment testing, before moving forward. He knows his specialization area better than any other GI doctor's I have had in the past. He explains in detail if asked, and his staff is always on top of every call or concern. They take as much time as a patient needs to communicate. He has a wonderful and knowledgeable staff which makes all the difference for a doctor's rapport. A perfect team when you're not well, is a blessing. I wouldn't change a thing.

MARCH 25 2022

He informs you about what is going on with your illness or problem that you are having. He's very thorough!

MARCH 22 2022

Good communicator, explained what would take place under different scenarios.

MARCH 21 2022

Caring, informative, knowledgeable.

MARCH 18 2022

Excellent Dr.

MARCH 18 2022

He's pleasant and I can talk with him.

MARCH 14 2022

Treated me very nice

MARCH 10 2022

He was a good doctor.

MARCH 8 2022

He told me what was actually going on inside my body, instead of just telling me what to do like other doctors have in the past.

MARCH 8 2022

Dr Martini is simply the best!

MARCH 4 2022

After 4 years, it took forever to get an appointment, then I finally spoke with him on the phone and was completely rushed through it! The call lasted just 15 minutes, when it should've been much longer, especially considering I had just had 2 Diverticular attacks. Ridiculous to say the least. I like the doctor, but that's about it. They have one person that can be relied upon and that's Cindy. All others I've dealt with should be replaced.

MARCH 4 2022

He is friendly and great Dr.

MARCH 1 2022

Doctor Listens to all my concerns he's very knowledgeable always makes me very comfortable treatment and medications are always helping

FEBRUARY 27 2022

Qualified and a good communicator

FEBRUARY 26 2022

Excellent long term care GI physician.

FEBRUARY 25 2022

Dr. Martin actively listened to my concerns and asked valid follow up questions. He gave me his recommendations based on his experience and made sure all of my questions were answered before leaving.

FEBRUARY 8 2022

Dr Martini was wonderful. This was my first visit and I did not know what to expect. However, he had been recommended by Dr Ganshirt who took out my gallbladder a few months earlier. (My own GI, Dr. Khurana at Good Shepherd Hospital had just retired.) Soon after I stepped into his office, I knew I was in good hands with Dr Martini. Dr. He saw me only minutes after my appointed time. During his examination, he sounded parsimonious; he explained things clearly and without ifs and buts. I appreciate a no nonsense doctor. And, finally, Dr Martini was pleasant, courteous, attentive. What an asset to your medical staff.

FEBRUARY 4 2022

Dr. martini, Takes the time to listen and really come up with plan. He's very professional and loves his job.
