Dr Dumanian is an excellent surgeon and wonderful doctor. First, his website is amazing - it's straightforward and academic, and gave me confidence in his abilities. Then when I had a consult with him, he was the first surgeon that I saw for my abdominal hernia issues, who I feel actually understood my situation and was compassionate and caring, wanted to help, and had a plan. I flew in from out of state to have him perform my surgery. When I had surgery, I continued to be impressed - I had pretty extensive surgery (in my opinion) and I was pleased and surprised at how well my recovery and healing has progressed.
