JULY 8 2019

My provider is very efficient and knowledgeable. I trust her judgement, but don't experience much compassion. She is just so busy that I times I feel like a number. I don't think it is her fault, but the pressure from the system to see so many patients. I do appreciate her timely follow-up when answering questions from email or reviewing my labs.

JULY 6 2019

Though my care provider was attentive as usual, I could tell that she was stressed because of the time.
