NOVEMBER 24 2021

Because she is a doctor that's truly concern about her patients and she listen to you about your medical problems to find out about what's going on with you.

NOVEMBER 17 2021

Personable. Listens to your concerns. Easy to talk to. She has this personality that just makes you feel at ease and comfortable. She does not have an air of being a doctor. She addresses your concerns

NOVEMBER 9 2021

I would, she is someone who shows cares, allow for evaluation.

NOVEMBER 7 2021

She also took the time to write a lengthy explanation regarding my x-rays, again, addressing concerns I might have had at the same time.

NOVEMBER 5 2021

She was smart and made me feel at easy. I trusted her opinion.

NOVEMBER 5 2021

She seemed very green and not super confident. She also used the term "homosexual" which is an out dated and borderline offensive term.

OCTOBER 7 2021

It was my first office visit to Dr. Jenny Jia and I was full of anticipations and sure enough she met them : 1.) she was punctual to see me. 2.)She was very welcoming . 3.) she let me talk and she listened. 4.) she answered my questions / concerns professionally & to my satisfaction. 5.) she provided a very comfortable atmosphere during our dialogue. 6.) she's very efficient in her specialty of medicine.

Most of all... she treated me as a fellow human being , not just a number!

OCTOBER 6 2021

Engaged, good listener, knowledgable, but follow-ons difficult because of availability.

OCTOBER 3 2021

Very kind and very thorough

OCTOBER 2 2021

Very warm, thorough care. She took time to listen to me and think through what to do in terms of my treatment, especially a very puzzling issue I am having. She went through every scenario and decision and also discussed with me. Additionally, I shared some new family history that I am concerned about and she was able to provide reassurance and education about it. She's a very good doctor.

SEPTEMBER 30 2021

Dr did not seem confident in their knowledge

SEPTEMBER 18 2021

It was only the one visit and I have no real sense of her, though she was perfectly pleasant and seemed good. Still remain a patient of my regular PCP
