MAY 10 2022

Dr. Delaney listens to her patients. I like that about her. Most medical practitioners are so full of themselves, they forget patients have a history. I worked for the Nixon White House, top of the line and was a senior staff assistant to the first Republican Governor of the State of Texas in 104 years. I was assistant to the campaign manager. One of the top political consultants on the nation credited me for that victory: the Hispanic vote switched parties to elect William P. Clements. I was a kind of ambassador to the governors of the Mexican states that abutted the State of Texas. We met with the President of Mexico. He dismissed his translator. I was translating for the Governor and the President of Mexico.
