OCTOBER 19 2019

I cannot stress how pleased I am that I switched to Dr. Monney several years ago. I am intensely private and abhor most things mainstream medical, and was accustomed to disinterested, detached primary physicians. Dr. Monney is engaging, kind, and seems genuinely interested in seeing that I am healthy now and into the future, all while being relatable, understandable, and medically/professionally proficient. For perhaps the first time, I feel I have a primary physician who is a long-term partner for my health.
