DECEMBER 11 2021

Dr Petrunaro is a wonderful internist and clearly understands patient care. She took time to understand the reason for my visit and to explain the tests that would be run and possible outcomes.

DECEMBER 10 2021

Even though Dr. Petrunaro has a large number of patients on her caseload, she remembers you and your personal health issues and concerns. She takes the time to listen and help make a decision on what is best course of treatment.

DECEMBER 8 2021

Always takes time with you. Never rushed.

DECEMBER 6 2021

DECEMBER 3 2021

I can't imagine a better person as a primary care physician.

DECEMBER 1 2021

Very knowledgeable and empathetic, but seems rushed.

NOVEMBER 30 2021

Irrelevant since she is leaving the practice. I was happy with her when I first became her patient, but with Northwestern's demands for large patient loads, the level of care and bedside deteriorated dramatically. For this, I don't entirely blame, but rather NM

NOVEMBER 30 2021

She is caring, patient and thorough.

NOVEMBER 30 2021

.....
She is extremely thorough, concerned for her patients, easy to understand and knowledgeable! She is committed and also firm about following healthy recommendations

NOVEMBER 22 2021

Dr. Petrunaro is the best physician I've ever had. She's thorough and I credit her for saving my life. Had she not been so adamant about getting to the root of my anemia, I wouldn't have gotten a colonoscopy and my colon cancer wouldn't have been caught at Stage 2.

NOVEMBER 19 2021

Caring!

NOVEMBER 16 2021

Dr Petrunaro has done an exceptional job analyzing my health and developing a plan to help improve it.

NOVEMBER 14 2021

She is an extraordinary physician, thorough, dedicated compassionate. She deeply cares about her patients. Dr P makes herself available despite the personal and family sacrifice required to do so. You are losing another one of your best and brightest. It will soon become evident the "physician extender" approach to medicine is not sustainable. Hopefully administration will take notice and return the decision making process on how best to see patients and practice medicine to physicians.

NOVEMBER 12 2021

She runs on time, gets you in, is extremely thorough and covers everything in great detail.

NOVEMBER 10 2021

She is detailed and compassionate

NOVEMBER 9 2021

So thorough takes time listens

NOVEMBER 8 2021

Dr Petrunaro is amazing

NOVEMBER 2 2021

Dr. Petrunaro is unusually expert even for NW medicine and she is completely focused on patient care

NOVEMBER 2 2021

Caring, explains in details, gives me her time without rushing.

OCTOBER 30 2021

I would recommend her to the world but the only problem is she's leaving in January and there's nobody like her. They will never be any doctor as detail oriented, as concerned and as empathetic as Dr. Kate. I recommended dozens of friends who do go to her and who feel the same way I do.

OCTOBER 28 2021

Aside from her professionalism and wonderful "bedside manner", Dr. Petrunaro is always very well prepared and makes the most of our time together. She takes as much time as needed to listen and answer my questions and address my concerns.

OCTOBER 11 2021

She gets to the bottom of things and gets it done to the best of her ability!

OCTOBER 11 2021

She takes time with me. Is attentive to the issues I have and always helps me resolve them. She is good at diagnosis and explaining why she thinks a certain way about a problem. She is easy to talk to.

OCTOBER 11 2021

Because she did take the time to listen to me!!! I think Northwestern is too big and doesn't allow time for the doctor/patient relationship to develop. 15 minute appointments are ridiculous

OCTOBER 11 2021

She's fabulous!!

She is a great person and very friendly and especially not an alarmist!

Dr. Petrunaro is an extraordinary physician. She deserves a promotion and a raise.

OCTOBER 7 2021

Great care. Efficient

OCTOBER 5 2021

Competent and caring.

OCTOBER 4 2021

She takes the times to address my health- I never feel rushed.

OCTOBER 4 2021

Maybe there has been an increase in the number of patients she needs to see in a day, but there has been a noticeable decrease in the amount of empathy she has during our limited time together.

OCTOBER 4 2021

Additionally, Dr Petrunaro thinks out of the box. She clearly has my best well being. She makes me feel safe to share sensitive information. She is also very responsive and available. I would highly recommend her to anyone
