JUNE 22 2021

So per kind and attentive. I have PTSD depression anxiety and the dr and staff were super understanding. It's hard to talk about suicide because everyone is judging as if they are wanted thoughts and feelings. Anyway they were able to help me and weigh the pros and cons of my problems which are just exacerbated by mental illness so that was great. I'm high functioning 90% of the time so it was nice they could be kind and attentive while I'm at my low point.
