Dr. Widmer is everything I would want from a pediatrician. She is so kind and patient with my daughter, but also with me! As a new parent, I have so many questions. But she is truly willing to listen and give sound advice or share knowledge on a topic. Since so much of child's health is also dependent on behavior, it's also great that she helps me to think about what is coming next, how to stimulate progress, and so on.
