OCTOBER 4 2023

I really like Dr. Cramer's quick, to-the-point approach. However, scheduling is consistently a challenge. The second time I saw Dr. Cramer, about a year ago, it was for a new issue. Because I was a returning patient, I was scheduled for a shorter appointment. The good news is that she rolled with it and gave me an exercise that resolved my issue within days of practicing it. This time, I mentioned that it was for a new issue, was scheduled for a longer appointment, but was in and out in under 20 minutes. Confusing.

OCTOBER 4 2023

Dr. Cramer is fantastic. She has been able to significantly improve my lower back pain and she gives me great recommendations for self care. She clearly cares tremendously for her patients! Also she has elite knowledge in her field! Thank you Dr. Cramer!
