AUGUST 7 2021

Lacks interest and concern. His attitude reflects what I would expect from a disenchanting factory worker. His attitude was so odd I thought that somehow I had offended him. I also did not need to hear the a political comment demeaning Pres. Biden at the beginning of the appointment. Whether I voted for him or not , I don't need a political overview of our current president. Overall this appointment could not have been more unsatisfactory. Clearly Bennet does not enjoy his position and should think of an alternative.
