SEPTEMBER 17 2020

Again, Dr. Badreldin is extremely kind, knowledgeable and helpful. She never rushes my appointments, answers each question carefully without being opinionated, but offers medical advice that is fitting, all the while. Other members of the team could stand to operate as she does; she offers sound medical advice, but in a way that does not diminish my hopes for a different experience. She truly believes I can attempt a Vba2c, and I'm grateful for her kindness.
