JULY 22 2022

Dr. Duchon and Resident Dr. Khan, both spent a long time with me addressing all of my questions and concerns. I've been diabetic for 5 years and felt like I still barely knew anything about my disease and how to treat it, especially with dosing my insulin. Never have I received this type of care from my previous endocrinologist, and we have a great plan in place for managing everything and getting my numbers better controlled. Most importantly, they actually listened!! And I feel they really care and want to help me. I've already recommended her to a friend.

JULY 21 2022

I felt listened to and dr Duchon was happy to answer all our questions and educate me on proper food's without talking down to me. This was a refreshing change. I appreciate being given the proper smalls to manage my condition and feeling like the doctor believe me when I told her I was trying to limit carbs. I
