DECEMBER 5 2021

Great experience. My doctor Rebecca L. Weiss-Coleman, MD was incredibly attentive, nice, knowledgeable and caring. I have had experiences with NW Dr's in the past who were very judge(y) and not particularly caring. I would recommend Dr. Weiss-Coleman to anyone.

NOVEMBER 15 2021

NOVEMBER 12 2021

She listens to my concerns about what I experience physically she then ordered the necessary testing to see what was present and how it may contribute to my complaint. Dr.Weiss-Coleman gave me an explanation why she believe certain test are necessary for her to make a comprehensive diagnostic medical evaluation while aiming to resolve the medical issues I have.

NOVEMBER 11 2021

Attitude toward delay

NOVEMBER 10 2021

Dr. Weiss Coleman was very nice. I do appreciate she let me know my labs and a note would be available on MyChart in a few days. However, I don't feel as though she asked sufficient questions to get a good understanding of my medical status or history. I received no medical advice, coaching or information about my health during my appointment. I think asking questions about sexual activity and frequency in bowel movements are important for a thorough annual exam. I was never asked about sexual history, partners, contraceptives, etc. I am not even sure if the physician tested for STDs. I wish she had been more specific in asking about potential symptoms or indicators rather than just asking "are you having any symptoms?". It would be helpful if she listed symptoms that might be considered red flags from diseases mentioned in my health history and family history.

She showed genuine empathy and in today's world, that's rare. She took something called time with me that has been lacking at other medical institutions. It was refreshing.

AUGUST 23 2021

Dr Weiss-Coleman is very nice, listens, discusses - these are the good points Irritation point - telling me to go look up my own exercises on the web for the diagnosed issue. This forecloses any opportunity for the patient to review them with the Dr, ask questions, or obtain clarification. It could be perceived as a brushoff.

AUGUST 22 2021

Her attention, service and advice
