NOVEMBER 11 2018

I can't say enough good things about her. I get the feeling she really cares about me.

OCTOBER 6 2018

Dr. Khan and her team have consistently impressed me and my wife (who has joined me on multiple appointments) with the professionalism, empathy, and level of care provided.

JULY 1 2018

Was very happy with the care and concern shown by the Doctor. She answered all of my questions and did not make me feel rushed.

MARCH 2 2018

Dr. Khan did an excellent job of listening and explaining to me in lay terms my problem. I was impressed by the fact that she had read all my previous test results and notes from the referring doctor. She was well prepared for our first meeting.

FEBRUARY 4 2018

Dr. Khan spent as much time as I needed, teaching and quelling fears, and teaching again and again. She rates an A+ n my book. She is aware that I am a nurse, so she teaches on my level, but for some things, she teaches a bit below: those are the areas where I need extra explaining. She is excellent at quelling my fears and apprehensions.
