NOVEMBER 15 2021

Dr Ansari and his nurse, Emily , were able to clearly explain complex information to me with great patience and sensitivity. They appeared to be a very comfortable effective team which further contributes to my confidence in the office. Also, as I recall from my past visits, Dr Ansari exudes warmth while practicing in what is a cold clinical area of expertise. My understanding has been that not all neurological specialists have that kind of warmth and patience.
