JUNE 4 2021

I went to Dr Wiet before he came to Northwestern and have known him for 10 years. I finally decided to bite the bullet after 4 years going to another doctor that was horrible in comparison and came back to Dr Wiet. The only reason I didn't follow him to Northwestern was because it was an hour ride in traffic from my house. That was a horrible mistake on my part to not follow him. He is a great doctor along with a very caring attitude. You have a complaint and he will do his best to try and fix it. He also makes himself very accessible to his patients and will go out of his way to make them feel comfortable. I love this doctor very much.

MARCH 31 2021

Dr. Wiet, and RN Lindsey, were very nice. I was nervous about some things but they put me at ease and I didn't feel rushed. They patiently answered my questions and explained things well. I felt well cared for and I would definitely recommend Dr Wiet to others.

MARCH 31 2021

He didn't really listen to my concerns and seemed very rushed. I took time off from my day, to visit a specialist in the heart, only for the Doctor not to listen to my concerns.

MARCH 30 2021

I appreciate Dr Wiet's experience and he projects a feeling of calm.

MARCH 29 2021

I have always felt the care I receive from Dr. Wiet is the best. He comes across as professional, knowledgeable, caring and empathetic. I would recommend Dr. Wiet to anyone needing a cardiologist. Dr. Wiet wants to see me in a year, but your scheduling calendar is limited in that it does not extend a year. I find that a bit disconcerting. I think your technology should fit the way your doctors practice medicine. So I have to be reminded in the future to make an appointment in the future. Unnecessarily cumbersome. Also, Dr. Wiet does not show as part of My Care Team in MyChart. Again, underwhelming technology.
